As you get ready to go on Spring Break a few quick notes:

 We now have Canvas Career Resource Pages for all majors!

These pages are intended to help get information to you regarding opportunities that come into our office as well as provide resources to help with your professional development.

If you have received an invitation to a page please consider accepting the invitation and take a look around.

If you are heading off to Spring Break and are still looking for an internship or job please know that there are still plenty of opportunities out there!

While on break consider:

-Setting up an appointment- we can assist by phone or e-mail while you are away

-Research! Check out Wildcat careers, Indeed.Com, Glassdoor, Onet.org just to name a few.

-Meet with us upon your return, appointments are booking up so consider making an appointment via Wildcat careers for your return to campus.

Career Tips of the Week

Approved Vs. Unapproved Companies recruiting on campus:

Companies that are approved to recruit on campus have received permission to post on Wildcat Careers. If a company that is recruiting on campus has not posted on Wildcat careers please check with career services prior to participating in recruitment. It is possible the company has been asked not to recruit on campus or has not sought permission to recruit.
