An important message from the Center of Social Innovation:

The Center for Social Innovation and Enterprise selects a handful of idealistic, high-achieving, impact-focused student leaders for the summer Social Innovation Internship program. Each intern works at a different host organization, e.g., Pax World Management, Veris Wealth Partners and Thornton Tomasetti, based on their skills and interests and reports to a supervisor at that organization. Interns spend the majority of the summer at their respective host organizations and occasionally come together as a cohort for trainings in social innovation and entrepreneurship. At a high-profile Showcase at the end of the summer, interns present on their experiences. Apply by February 27th, 2017. Paul students are welcome to apply for an additional $2,500 stipend through the Internship Opportunity Fund.

It is possible the company has been asked not to recruit on campus, or have not sought out permission to recruit on campus.
