ECON 988 and 996
Economics Graduate Seminar
Term II/Fall 2018
Paul 115, 2:10-3:30pm unless otherwise noted

September 28  RCR Training Day for graduate students – No seminar
October 5*  Informational meeting for ECON 988/996 students (1:00-2:00 pm, Paul 215)
October 5  Research Workshop/Event for ECON 988 students
October 12  Jean Abraham – University of Minnesota - “The Impact of Medicaid Expansion on Employer Provision of Health Insurance.”
October 19  Michael Goldberg - University of New Hampshire - “Forward Rate Bias in Developed and Developing Countries: More Risky Not Less Rational.”
October 26  Austin Nichols – Urban Institute
November 2  Randall Walsh – University of Pittsburgh
November 9  Kenneth R. French – Dartmouth College- “Comparing Cross-Section and Time-Series Factor Models ”
November 16  Scott R. Lemos – University of New Hampshire - "Mitigating price anchoring effects through cheap talk: Evidence from a choice experiment.”
November 23  Thanksgiving Break
November 30  Nathan W. Chan - University of Massachusetts Amherst - “What is the value of conformity? Evidence from home landscaping and water conservation.”
December 7  James Wible - University of New Hampshire