Timelines and Deadlines. When we see our friends getting those internships and jobs we can't help but wonder, what is my timeline? When should I be looking for an opportunity? The short answer, each industry is a bit different. The bigger answer, the time for all internships and jobs is now. It can take months to find the right fit, numerous opportunities are posted now for summer internships and full time jobs.

Our career counselors specialize within each area to keep up to date for trends and shifting deadlines.

As the semester ends, here is an update for which counselor you can meet with to create your internship/life plan. They can also help you create a timeline for your search and set some concrete deadlines to make sure you don't miss out on opportunities.

- Leslie Scarsilloni: ISBA/Economics
- Megan Turnbull: Accounting/Finance/MSA
- Leslie Smith: Management/Entrepreneurial studies/MBA
- Kathy Maloney: Marketing/Hospitality/MBA

Career Tip of the Week

When you go home for Thanksgiving break look around your home for networking opportunities. Does it turn out your neighbor works at a marketing firm? Aunt Sue has a friend who works at X bank? Most job opportunities come to us via our friends and family network. Take time over your Thanksgiving break to rest, enjoy and network!
